

Leadership Summit Your Space Whiteboard

- How are we not including/recognizing differently-abled people at The Haven? (as capable of being participant/intern/leader)
- How do we create a bridge between youth programs and adult/intern programs?
- How does personality serve/limit leadership?
- When talking about leadership, should we think about one person or a group of people?
- I'm choosing to follow the message/vision, not necessarily the person(s).
- How do we create dependency in Leadership?
- Is leadership dependent on context?
- How do I stay comfortable with discomfort?
- What are the costs/benefits of having a single leader?
- What are the role(s) of personal development in creating an organization-serving leader?
- Value the disturbance.
- Are there new words for "leader" that recognize/transform the baggage/shadow that comes with the term?
- How do we address the bias towards extraverted charismatic leadership?
- What are leadership behaviours that lead to the development of trust?
- How can we stop isolating leaders?
- How can we move towards values-based learning?
- How can we systematically create room for personality and vulnerability in roles of leadership?
- How to expand and include (+ possibly delete!) based on a new person's perspective?
- How can we live our change now?
